UM WOMEN'S TENNIS TEAM
FINISHES REGULAR SEASON

Finishing the regular season with a 17-4 record, the University of Montana women's tennis team is getting ready for regional competition May 9-10 in Bozeman.

Lynanne Otto, a sophomore from Dayton, Ohio, maintained a perfect win-loss record, 21-0, throughout the season in her No. 3 singles slot.

In last week's competition in Bozeman the No. 3 doubles team, Colleen MacNamara and Jane Heintzman, defeated its opponents to finish the season with 17 wins and no losses.

In Bozeman, the Grizzlies won their matches easily. In UM's first contest, the Grizzlies smashed Boise State 9-0. In singles competition Montana took all six matches against Washington State. No doubles matches were played because of high winds.

Montana came out on top in its match against rival Montana State 7-2.

Montana coach Paul Larson was especially happy with the performance of the No. 1 doubles team. Grizzlies Birgitte Giaver and Diane Wortman defeated Bobcat netters Jeanne Rogers and Karen Eggen. Last year the MSU pair took first at regionals.

In the regional meet Montana will compete against Washington State, Oregon State, University of Oregon and Montana State for a chance to compete at the national meet in Baton Rouge, La. The Grizzlies have defeated each of the teams during the regular season.
